

Name: _____ Date: _____

1 Volunteer Hour

How to Make Routines that Work by Emily Suarez

<https://montessoriparenting.org/how-to-make-routines-that-work/>

How to Make a Morning Routine Chart for Kids by Living Montessori Education Community

<https://www.livingmontessori.com/how-to-make-a-morning-routine-chart-for-kids/>

Instructions: Click the links above to be redirected to the articles. Read “How to Make Morning Routines that Work” and answer the questions below. Email completed worksheets to office@saladomontessori.com or print and turn in to the office.

1. Explain 2 ways a routine can benefit a child.

2. Name 3 activities or situations where a routine may be beneficial.

- _____
- _____
- _____

3. Fill in the blank.

- “Creating a sense of order is very important to children under the age of _____.”

10880 FM 1670, Salado, TX 254-947-4005 www.saladomontessori.com

4. Review the “Implementing a Routine” section in “How to Make Routines that Work”. Which tip for implementing a new routine do you find most helpful and why?

5. Bonus: Read “How to Make a Morning Routine Chart for Kids”. Create a chart and attach a picture of it to this worksheet for an additional volunteer hour.